

Hi, my name is Zsófi and I'm a UI designer & Front-End Developer.

I'm focused on creating coherent and aesthetically pleasing visual languages.

About

As a designer and developer, I understand the perfect user interface should look good and work even better.

Using my design skills and developer knowledge to not just make your digital product look pretty, but to make it run smooth.

With the background of statistics, business and marketing, I connect UX/UI design with real business goals, while providing delightful client experiences.

I also love documenting my journey and sharing it with the community to help others succeed and grow.
